Swiss Gion Fetz has been appointed new Executive Chef at the Dolder Grand from 1 March 2010. In this position he will be responsible for the Garden Restaurant, the Lobby and the Bar, room service and banqueting.

There is to be a change in the main kitchen of the Dolder Grand in Zurich from 1 March 2010, when Gion Fetz becomes the new Executive Chef. In this position he will be responsible for the Garden Restaurant, the Lobby and the Bar, room service and banqueting.

Gion Fetz will be in charge of the urban Garden Restaurant, which is open all day, every day, serving light European cuisine and modern Swiss interpretations inside or on the large terrace. On Sundays there is a Sunday brunch with an abundant buffet.

The Dolder Grand has two restaurants; Heiko Nieder will remain Fine Dining Chef at The Restaurant, which has been awarded 17 GaultMillau points and 1 Michelin star.

Gion Fetz (41) completed his chef's training at the Arosa Kulm Hotel. He gained national and international experience as head chef of Caduff's Wine Loft in Zurich, the Paradise Beach Resort on Ko Samui in Thailand, the Rembrandt Hotel in Bangkok and the Medhufushi Island Resort on the Maldives.
