

The Dolder Grand

The Dolder Grand, luxury 5 star hotel in Zurich: After a construction phase lasting four years, Zurich celebrates the return of one of its most prominent landmarks. The original "Curhaus" (health spa), built in 1899, has been transformed into a luxury-class city resort in Switzerland. In the process, the hotel's glittering past and vibrant future have been fused together, as reflected in the architecture by Foster and Partners, the interior design by United Designers and the spa concept by Sylvia Sepielli. The Dolder Grand 5 star hotel & spa is part of the Dolder Resort.

The Dolder Grand has earned the SQS ISO certification according to the 9001:2008 standard.
