Dolder Grand takes Wallpaper Design Award

The Dolder Grand has been awarded the title of 'Best new or renovated hotel' by the well-known British magazine, Wallpaper.

This was the fifth time the world-famous monthly magazine for design, fashion, art, interior design and lifestyle had presented its annual Design Awards. 'Best new or renovated hotel' is one of eleven categories for the 'International Judges' Awards', which are presented annually to the year's high-flyers. The international jury consists of Jean Nouvel, Inès de la Fressange, Marc Newson, Sir Ken Adam, Kanye West and Stefano Pilati. The Design Awards were presented at a special event in Paris on 22 January 2009.

The Dolder Grand was closed for construction work and renovations from 2004 to 2008. London-based architects Foster and Partners fused the historic main building of 1899 with all that is best in modern architecture. Two new sections, the Spa Wing and the Golf Wing, snugly enclose the completely restored main building, tangibly linking past and future. The symbiosis between the traditional and the modern is also reflected in the rooms and suites. By bringing together an eclectic, carefully chosen selection of furnishings and fittings, United Designers of London have created a genuinely historic ambience in the old main building while infusing the two new wings of the building with the spirit of the modern. American spa expert, Sylvia Sepielli, developed the spa concept.

The Dolder Grand opened on 3 April 2008, with 173 luxurious rooms and suites, two restaurants, a 4000 square-metre spa, together with banqueting and seminar facilities. The Dolder Grand is part of the Dolder Resort.
